

North Carolina Angus Association Summer Field Day

Friday, August 11, 2017

North Carolina State University
Beef Educational Unit
3720 Lake Wheeler Road
Raleigh, NC 27603

Morning Session

- 9:30 am Registration
- 10:00 Angus Online Introduction – beginning training for using Angus Online to manage your herd records
Kristin Toll – AAA Customer Service Representative & Chris Stallo – AAA VP of Operations
- 10:00 North Carolina State University Beef Educational Unit Tour
- 10:45 Angus Online Advanced – build on the knowledge gained in the early session or more seasoned user can join this training session for using Angus Online
- 12 noon Lunch

Afternoon Session

- 1:30 pm Registration
- 2:00 pm Welcome
- 2:30 – 4:30 pm Concurrent Sessions
- Amazing Grazing – Grazing Management to save you Time & Money
Johnny Rogers – NCSU Amazing Grazing Program Coordinator & Paige Smart – Southeast Agri-Seed
- Certified Angus Beef – BEEF 101 – What Makes Quality Beef?
Scott Redden – CAB Specialist Sysco & Chris Jeffcoat – AAA Regional Manager
- Genomic Selection – Breeding for Carcass Quality
Kelli Retallick – AGI Genetic Service Director
- Live Heifer Selection – Producer panel discussion utilizing heifers from NCSU
- 3:30 Rotate to New Session
- 4:30 Wrap-up and Questions

I plan to attend the NC Angus Field Day on August 11th in Raleigh, NC.

RSVP by calling the NCAA office 336-599-8750 or email ncaa.sec@gmail.com. Let Sharon know if you will attend the morning, afternoon sessions or both and how many for lunch?