NC State Fair Meeting

Mattie Harward called the meeting to order. Lynae Bowman read the minutes and Cara Smith read the treasurer's report. The balance as of 9/28/18 was $32,433.81. Old Business: Schyler Crocker talked about ERJAS and showmanship results from the show. Taylor Glover was second in the intermediate division and Schyler won the junior division. Justin Wood talked about NJAS. Several juniors placed in contests and we had a good crowd that traveled to Wisconsin. Marcie Harward talked about LEAD conference; we had 8 juniors that went to Montant.

New Business: We talked about upcoming sales, which is the Down East Sale on November 3rd. We decided to serve chili. The O'Neills are in charge and the Woods, and Lynae can help serve. Upcoming shows were NAILE with the junior show Sunday, November 11 and ROV Open Show is Monday, November 12. The Smiths, Woods, Harwards, Glovers and Crockers plan to attend. We talked about NCJAA State Show. The committee is Mary Wood, Riley Wood, Marcie Harward with Dustin and Jordan O'Neill as the advisors. April Bowman informed the group that RJ Reynolds was willing to speak to the juniors on how to say no to Peer Pressure and Tobacco Use and that they would then donate $1,000 to NCJAA. Marcie moved to have RJR speak at the annual meeting February 9th. The motion passed, Mrs. April will follow-up with them and get it scheduled. We discussed important upcoming events such as AAAx Certificate of Achievement Award due November 1, National Angus Convention November 3-5, NCAAAx Achievement Award due December 31 and Annual Meeting February 9th.
